

SHERIFF TAPS MEN ON STREET FOR JURY DUTY

Ten men were selected from the streets of Gettysburg Monday afternoon to secure the second alternate for the jury hearing the murder charge against Thomas Luther Brown, Gettysburg R. 1 junkman, in Adams County court.

At 2:45 o'clock Monday afternoon the 43 members of the panel of jurors selected for the May term of court had been exhausted, with 13 selected from the group for the Brown jury and with one still needed to round out the required number of 12 jury members and two alternates.

Sheriff Dawson Miller and his deputies were instructed by the court to secure ten additional persons for jury duty. He returned with the ten at 3:30 o'clock and by 3:50 the 14th juror was chosen. He is Clarence C. Smith, Fayetteville R. 1, for many years clerk to the Adams County commissioners, who had been visiting in Gettysburg on business Monday and was "picked up" by the sheriff while walking along the street near the court house.

Extends His Stay

As a result his visit to Gettysburg is extended until the trial is completed and the jury returns its verdict.

Ten jurors had been selected up to noon.

The 27th juror, Mary C. Vial, York St.; the 28th, Marie E. Kuhn, Gettysburg R. 5, and 31st, John H. Myers, New Oxford R. 1, were each excused for cause.

The 28th, Martin L. Yohe, Abbottstown R. 1, and 30th, Roy Anderson, East Berlin R. D., were peremptorily challenged by the defense.

The 32nd juror to appear, Charles E. Kuhn, 236 Ridge Ave., a salesman, was selected as the 11th member of the panel, Florence Smith, York Springs R. 2; Guy Bream, Gardeners R. 1; Walter Bream, Gardeners R. 1; and Walter H. Fissel, Gettysburg R. 1, were dismissed, Mrs. Smith and Bream for cause and the two Fissels on peremptory challenge by the defense.

Cameron Garretson, Biglerville R. D. farmer, the 37th juror on the stand, was selected as the 12th member of the jury, bringing the total at that point to six men and six women.

E. B. Geiman, Littlestown, was excused for cause and David Welk, the 40th juror called, was chosen as the first alternate. He is a Hanover R. 4 farmer. The next three jurors in order, Stanley Staub, Littlestown; Harry Hoover, New Oxford R. 1, and Margaret Galbraith, 334 W. Middle St., were all excused for cause, thus exhausting the regular panel.

Court recessed until 10 more jurors were brought in. They were Bernard F. Redding, 517 Steinwehr Ave.; Glenn L. Bream, 202 W. Broadway; Thomas Ziegler, 25 Steinwehr Ave.; Stover A. Small, 65 E. High St.; Clarence C. Smith, Fayetteville R. 1; John H. Pitzer, Gettysburg; Esther Gladstone, Gettysburg R. 3; George Zerfing, 42 Howard Ave.; Willis Weikert Sr., Seminary Ave., and Charles B. Bender, E. Broadway.

Choose No. 14

Reading, Bream and Ziegler were excused for cause; Small was given a peremptory challenge by the defense and Smith, the 48th juror to appear for questioning, was chosen as the second alternate—the 14th member of the jury. The others were then immediately excused.

District Attorney Daniel E. Teeter gave his outline of "what the commonwealth means to prove," that Thomas Luther Brown, 47, Gettysburg R. 1, on the night of April 19 fatally shot a boarder in his home, Cleveland Arnold, 39, of Greenville, Fla. At the conclusion of his summary he said the commonwealth would ask the jury to return a verdict finding Brown "guilty of murder."

County Surveyor LeRoy H. Winebrenner was the first witness. He

Straban Okays School Budget And Keeps Tax

With the prospect of higher transportation costs because of an increase in pupil population and with a larger bill expected from the joint school district next year than for the current year, Straban Township school directors at their May meeting Monday evening gave preliminary approval to a $192,174 budget and continued present tax rates for another year.

The real estate tax rate will continue at 42 mills and the per capita levies will be $14 for another year. The board also voted to continue its one percent real estate transfer tax.

With total costs up about $20,000 over the current year and with the state appropriations expected to bring in only about $7,000 more for next year, the board is depending upon an expected balance of about $15,000 to carry the district through next year.

Additional Expense

The biggest expense item is the $142,905 bill to be received from the joint school district, an increase of about $16,000. The boost is because the Straban board will have to pay about $9,500 toward the cost to make changes in the high school and Mead buildings to meet Labor and Industry requirements. The township also must pay $16,950 in annual rentals to the school authority for new buildings.

The transportation cost is estimated at over $26,000. The township will have to replace two 48-passenger buses with 60-passenger vehicles and may have to add a bus, depending upon final enrollment figures. All bus contracts expire this year and the board took steps to advertise for new bus bids.

On the receipt side, the transfer tax is estimated to bring in $2,500 and state appropriations $102,000. An increased real estate assessment will make the 42-mill tax levy worth $51,467 while the $14 head taxes will bring in about $18,000.

The board ordered the proposed budget placed on public inspection and directed that the tax resolution be advertised.

President Herbert Blye presided at the meeting with all members present.

Zettie said, "Filamentous algae is one of the most serious weed problems in farm ponds. This weed as well as many other weeds can now be controlled by the use of chemicals. Certain procedures need to be followed if ponds are to be safely treated."

Russia Wants Poles And Czechs At Big Four Meet

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
GENEVA (AP) — The Western Allies brace themselves today to block a new drive by the Soviet Union's Andrei Gromyko to expand Communist membership at the foreign ministers conference by adding delegations from Poland and Czechoslovakia.

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd and French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville were reported firmly agreed to reject any such proposal by Gromyko at the second conference session.

Gromyko was to serve as chairman. The announced purpose of the session was to hear a round of opening speeches from all four ministers, but some Western officials thought that as chairman, the veteran Soviet diplomat might raise the Polish-Czech issue at the outset and once more tie up the conference in a procedural row.

By United resistance Monday, the Western three beat down Gromyko's bid to give Communists

Board Elects 3 Teachers, Gets Resignations From 4; Opens Way For New Posts

HUGE BUDGET OF $882,000 IS APPROVED

Giving final approval to an $882,000 budget for the 1959-1960 school year, the Gettysburg Joint School District at its May meeting Monday evening voted to spend about $70,000 to bring the Meade and the high school buildings in line with state Departments of Labor and Industry and Public Instruction regulations with regard to fire hazards.

With the $70,000 figure included for building remodeling and improvements ordered by the state, the new budget is about $115,000 higher than that for the current year.

In addition to raising that joint school budget, the member districts also face a bill of $153,300 in school rentals from the Gettysburg School Authority for bond issues on new school buildings.

Raise Teachers' Pay

Extra teachers because of increased enrollment and state-mandated increases in teachers' salaries next year will hike the bill for teachers' pay here next year over the half million dollar mark. The estimate is $510,850. In the year that is ending, the salaries came to about $479,000. The extra staff, janitorial and otherwise, to operate the new Eisenhower school also is reflected in the new budget which had gotten a preliminary okay a month ago.

The decision to spend an estimated $65,000 to convert Meade school "into a practically new school at a cost of about $300 per pupil" was decided after considerable discussion and after consultation with a representative of the Buchart engineering company and its plans that have gotten Harrisburg approval.

Remodel Meade

Architect Don Risley told the board the state thinks that Meade school can be made into a "very nice" school building that will be usable for a number of years, but Harrisburg recommends abandonment of the Lincoln School because its grounds are too small and its plan does not lend itself to changes required to meet state fire and panic law provisions.

The board did not vote to abandon the Lincoln School but will keep it for an expected "pinch for space" for elementary pupils in two years. There was a suggestion that Lincoln might later be altered to make it usable on a temporary basis.

It was also pointed out that special state permission to use Lincoln School next fall may have to be asked if changes at Meade cannot be completed before school opens.

Board action Monday evening directed that plans be completed and bids sought as soon as possible for the work at the high school and at Meade.

At the high school the work will cost $5,000 to $5,500 and will include the placing of "fire screens" in the hall between the cafeteria and the old section of the building, move fire doors in basement to enclose stairways in the old building, fireproof ceiling in the fan room, construct two fire doors in the boiler room and

Trio Treated At Warner Hospital

Edward Baker, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Baker, Emmitsburg, was treated Monday at the Warner Hospital for an injury to his nose and laceration of the upper lip sustained when he collided with another player while playing softball.

Edward Thomas, 21, 135 Breckenridge St., received treatment for a sprain of the right ankle suffered Monday while playing basketball at the recreation park. John Trent, 18, Emmitsburg R. 1, was treated for severe lacerations of the right index finger and right thumb received while using a cut-off saw at work.

New School Is Nearly Finished

The new Eisenhower Elementary School building is 98 per cent complete and is scheduled for final inspection of its two wings within the next month, Gerry Orndorff, a representative of the Buchart Engineering firm, architects for the new school, told school officials after the joint board meeting Monday evening.

The building, which has been under construction for more than a year and originally was to be finished in April, will go into use in September.

The Gettysburg Joint School Board at its May meeting Monday evening at the high school building elected three teachers, accepted resignations of four others, approved two requests submitted by a committee of teachers and filled a number of staff positions in the joint school district organization.

On recommendation of the teacher and curriculum committee G. Donald Young, Aaronsburg, Pa., a Gettysburg College alumnus, was elected as a high school teacher and head football coach at a salary of $4,400. An article on Mr. Young's election appears on the sports page today with his picture.

Also on recommendation of the same committee Charles Eckhart, a senior at Albright College, was elected to a high school teaching position at a salary of $3,800 and Miss Norma E. Nichols, a senior at Lycoming College, Williamsport, was elected to an elementary teaching position at a starting salary of $3,800.

Accept Resignations

The resignations were from: Mrs. Louise Schleicher, girls' health teacher in the high school; Robert Nicholson, junior high arithmetic teacher; William J. Williams, junior high counselor and teacher, and Mrs. Mary P. Baskerville, senior high English teacher. All were accepted on recommendation of the teacher and curriculum committee.

The same committee's recommendation that the position of trainer and equipment manager for football be created was adopted. The job which will be extra duty for a regular teacher will pay $300. Committee members said the position is "badly needed."

Superintendent H. Edgar Riegler presented another recommendation from the board's teacher and curriculum committee which originated from a committee of teachers and has been recommended at teacher workshops here for the last three years.

The board approved the plan which authorizes designation of department heads in the high school and a head teacher for each grade in the elementary schools. Up to $1,200 a year was authorized to be used as the positions are created with $100 extra pay for teacher so appointed.

Approve Leave Policy

The board gave an official okay to an extension of sick leave provided under state law for teachers. It was recommended by the teacher and curriculum committee and would allow teachers to accumulate up to 60 days of annual leave after 21 years of employment in this district. Superintendent Riegler noted that except for two teachers who were absent 50 days and 28 days each, the average for the 101 others was 1.86 days of absence due to illness for the entire year. The new plan allows long-time employees to accumulate more than 30 days of leave after five years of employment.

The school board elected the First National Bank as the joint

ORGANIZE NEW LIBRARY GROUP

A county-wide Friends of the Library Association was organized Monday night at a meeting in the Adams County Free Library. Mrs. Frank Hewetson, chairman, presided. About 35 persons attended. Legislation pending in Harrisburg which will, if approved, provide additional financial aid for libraries was explained by Mrs. Oren Wilson, librarian.

Mrs. Kenneth L. Smoke, also a librarian and a former member of the library board, spoke of her experience with similar organizations in other communities.

Thomas Pyle, a member of the library board, explained the library's 1959 budget and detailed some of the present and future needs of the library. The Rev. Nevin R. Frantz, Arendtsville, spoke of the cultural aspects of the new organization and of the good which it can accomplish.

The association decided to have a speakers' bureau through which speakers on library subjects can be made available to organizations throughout the county and named Dr. W. R. Sammel to head the bureau. The county will be organized according to school districts, it was decided, with a chairman for each district. The membership list will be opened in the fall.

HEADS CP FUND DRIVE

Mrs. David Forney, R. 3, has been named chairman of the United Cerebral Palsy drive for Gettysburg and Biglerville. The drive, first canvassed here for the CP organization, will be made May 25-26.

TELL BOARD OF SCHOOL TESTS

Gettysburg's school nurses reported to the joint school board on the results of vision and hearing screening tests conducted on 1,348 grade school pupils here.

The report showed 57 had a hearing loss and 168 failed the vision test. The nurses reported 20 pupils need to have their glasses re-checked and 124 have glasses that correct their vision.

Miss Ellen R. Miller and Mrs. M. Lucille Brennan, the school nurses, reported that 270 pupils reported to the health service, 233 of them because of sickness or illness and the others for gym excuses. Fourteen students were taken home ill and parents called for 22 others. Sixteen homes were visited.

The nurses reported they are making plans for tetanus immunization for all boys who will participate in sports programs next fall. Sixth graders are being included.

Copies of the health service report were distributed to the board members.

have mineral wool blown into voids of partitions in front stairways in the old building. An extra exit from the boiler room may be required.

Changes at Meade will be extensive and will include changes in the basement to provide an all-purpose room, place lavatories on the first and second floors and build new stairs at each end of the building to replace illegal circular stairs. The state has not yet said whether the new stairs are to be of wood or steel with $4,000 riding on that decision. Cloak room space will be used to enlarge classrooms or provide toilet space. Fireproofing is to be done in the basement and extra exits are to be added there. Floor plan drawings for the building were shown the directors.

To Be Redecorated
After the changes the building will have to be redecorated and a modern fire alarm system installed.

The local school districts have no prospect of any state reimbursement for the fire hazard correction work, the board was told.

Decisions on the work at the high school and at Meade were by unanimous roll call votes.

Table Lodge Plan
The board adopted a property committee recommendation that a proposal for converting the high school lodge into office quarters be tabled. Cost estimates on the proposed work have risen from $16,000 to $22,000.

The directors ratified supply committee action in awarding contracts to low bidders for art and general supplies and for supplies and equipment for the high school music department, physical education department and industrial arts.

The J. L. Hammett Company was given the $3,185 contract for art supplies and Robert and Meek will furnish general supplies at $8,070. The list of successful bidders for items on the other lists filled four pages.

Board Secretary Kenneth G. Reinhardt read letters from Assemblyman Francis Worley and Senator Douglas Elliott promising their support on school legislation. A letter from Governor Lawrence's office said the governor cannot endorse House Bill 1108 until funds are found to provide the extra help to schools.

Summer Concerts
The directors gave their approval for Dr. William S. Hart to use the high school auditorium for summer Sunday afternoon concert. The orchestra will pay rent in line with a schedule the board adopted several years ago.

The Gettysburg Fire Department was given permission to use the high school auditorium for its annual anniversary program June 28.

The Adams County PTA Council was granted use of the Keefeauver School for a school of instruction June 12.

The board approved current bills totaling $4,184 for payment. The monthly high school cafeteria report showed a net gain of $267 for last month after an average of 730 students and 255 a la carte and 55 adult meals were served daily for 22 days. At the grade school cafeteria the total number of pupils' meals was 880 and 51 adults. The net gain there was $260 for the month. The money goes into the cafeteria fund. The activities fund balance was given at $13,325 and that in the athletic fund at $633.

displayed a drawing of the location of furnishings in the Brown home. State policeman James King, of the Harrisburg headquarters, identified pictures of the Brown home and of Arnold. Dr. C. Harold Johnson gave details of the cause of death of Arnold.

Describes Injuries

Dr. Johnson said an autopsy showed several bruises on Arnold, plus a hole 1 1/2 inches long by slightly over one inch wide in his abdomen, three inches to the left of the naval. The wound, he said, was caused by a shotgun blast which entered the body on a 45 degree angle and caused a number of holes in intestines and entered into the fatty area supporting the intestines. Twenty-six inches of intestines protruded out of the opening made in the flesh by the shotgun. Seven pellets were recovered inside the body and turned over to police.

At 5 o'clock the jury was taken to the James Gettys Hotel where they will stay each night until returning their verdict. They were forbidden to speak to anyone, to read any newspapers or listen to radio. But the court decided a television set may be furnished them.

Hear Witnesses

This morning witnesses included Harold Musser, Gettysburg R. 1, neighbor of the Browns; State Policemen Levinski and Elmer Soprano and Brown's 13-year-old daughter, eldest of his four children, Ella Louise Brown, a fifth grade pupil.

Musser testified that Mrs. Brown and other members of the Brown family fled to his home late on the night of April 18, following the shooting at the Brown place. Brown then came out carrying a gun and asked Mrs. Brown to come out. At one time he apparently tried to gain entrance to the Musser home, it was testified.

Officers Levinski and Soprano said they encountered "no trouble whatsoever" from Brown when they arrived at his home in response to a telephone call. They said Brown told them he had shot Arnold and showed them through the house, retracing the events leading to the shooting and showed them the 16-gauge shotgun he had used. Soprano said Brown "said something about his wife and the deceased having affairs and something about his wife and the deceased after he had treated them so good."

Talked About A Knife
Soprano said Brown also said something about a knife Arnold was supposed to have had and "showed us a knife in a drawer. I think I picked up the knife and then I left it there." Levinski quoted Brown as saying "what would you do if someone came at you with a knife?"

Brown took a drink before leaving for jail. When Soprano was asked if Brown had permission. He said: "I was right there, I didn't say no."

Ella Louise Brown said there had been no difficulties that she knew of between her father and mother, that she had heard no arguments. On the day of the shooting, she said, her father and "Mr. Cleve," the man who was shot, had worked together in the junk business. Then Mr. and Mrs. Brown, Arnold and Sarah Craig had gone to town for groceries. They returned and Mrs. Brown drove Brown to the Acme Store where he cleaned the store before returning home.

Offtimes throughout this life we know . . . we are brought face to face . . . with accusations and events . . . that are not commonplace . . . and if we know within our heart . . . the claims are far from true . . . retaliation is the thing . . . we all are prone to do . . . but, as for me, I weigh the case . . . and analyze its worth . . . and cover all the aspects that . . . gave my dilemma birth . . . then if I stand to gain my point . . . without creating more . . . Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and The Gettysburg Times

FIFTY YEARS AGO

Forest Fire At Hunter's Run: Burning at present on the South Mountain in the vicinity of Hunter's Run is one of the worst fires in the history of this section and hundreds of acres of timber lands are being destroyed.

The fire had its origin, it is thought, from the flames which practically devastated the greater part of the Cameron estate located on the mountains a short distance southwest of Mount Holly Springs, and which was gotten under control by a large force of men the early part of the week. In the place the fire was doubtless started by persons who were crossing the mountains, being of incendiary origin.

Superintendent Allen Butler of the Iron Company has sent out nearly all the company's men located at Pine Grove Furnace, and a large force of men from Henry Clay and Hunter's Run are fighting the flames. The firemen number about one hundred men, and it is thought if nothing occurs, they will be able to cope with the fire in a short while.

It is believed that about 1,000 acres have already been burned. It was believed that when the state road was reached the flames would be checked, but they leaped fully 20 feet across it and burned fiercely as ever. Practically all of Penn township has been cleared of mountain timber between the settlement and the Pine Grove line.

Local News Happenings: Much interest has been shown in the big new "150" Western Maryland freight engines which have been going through Gettysburg the past few days.

Work on getting Pen Mar Park ready for the summer season is being hurried along. It is said that the park will be prettier than ever before.

In case any who have paid for street sprinkling are not receiving the service they are requested to notify Mrs. Stewart or Mrs. O'Neal at once.

Rev. Henry Anstadt and Dr. J. A. Clutz are attending the sessions of the Adams County Conference in East Berlin.

A meeting of the Gettysburg Driving Club will be held Thursday evening at the Hotel Wabash.

On Monday over five tons of milk were shipped from Bigler-ville milk station to Philadelphia.

Speed Limit Increased: The new automobile act signed by Governor Stuart increases the speed limit for Gettysburg and similar towns from 8 to 12 miles an hour. On country roads the speed limit is made 24 miles an hour. But while this is now the law it does not permit automobiles to run so fast as even four or five miles an hour, should such speed endanger the life of pedestrians.

Ugly Runaway After Church: The Baltimore Pike at Ward Berca's home, Two Taverns, was the scene Sunday afternoon of a thrilling driving accident.

The services at the church were just over, persons in little groups here and there were exchanging greetings, others were already on their way home. George Patterson and his cousin, also George Patterson, were among the latter. They were driving quietly along when suddenly over the crest of a little rise, immediately in front, an automobile plunged into view.

Mr. Patterson had barely time to tighten his hold upon the lines when his horse reared and swung off the pike. As the horse whirled,

Today's Talk

WORK THROUGH
There is a saving power in the world — a something that follows us, that picks us up when we stumble, and that lifts our heads when they get too much in the habit of looking downward.

This power is work! And its application is to work through. Many worry through. But the real rulers, the leaders, creators, dominators, doers — those who sow and reap and accumulate and leave something of worth and substance behind — work through.

It's not the easiest way. Sometimes you have to go through stone walls — walls that look absolutely impossible and impassable. But there is a way to get through them. It's to work through them.

Work is a healer. Work is a bolsterer. Work is the sum and substance of what it pays to make life out of. When you are in doubt as to the best next move, get right down to some useful job — and by the time you have worked through it, the chances are that your vision will have cleared. Work through!

While the year is young, while newer things are budding, while so many are doing their best to make the world a little better and to even up what has been torn down through years of war and sorrow, you do your part — take the cue — work through.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Cheerful Outlook."

AGE

We must grow old in years;
We cannot stay
The hand of Time. He hears,
Our hair turns gray.

Our steps less brightly grow,
And on each brow
Time traces lines to show
That youth is leaving now.

These outward forms of Age
The passing years impart.
They are Time's heritage;
Youth rules the heart.

Time cannot 'gainst our will
Subdue a cheery tongue.
Though old in years we still
May inwardly be young.

'Tis not in snow white hair
Man's history is told.
Say not that Age is there,
Unless the heart is old.

Mr. Patterson sprang to grab him, caught his foot in the curl of the lines and fell, but in falling grabbed the reins and with the assistance of others succeeded finally in stopping the frantic horse.

But they had no time to relax for upon them came a second auto. Its driver did not stop his car until almost opposite the horse and refused to stop his engine. The continued roar of the engine together with the strong odor of gasoline caused the horse to rear and pitch until he got out of the shafts after having broken the shafts and bent over parts of the buggy. The buggy was an entirely new one of the Littlestown make. Fortunately no one was seriously hurt.

'Don' Young, 29, Gettysburg College Grad, Is Named Head Grid Coach At High School

George Donald Young, 29-year-old Gettysburg College alumnus who has had three years of coaching experience and three years of service in the United States Marine Corps, was elected as the new head football coach and as an instructor at the Gettysburg High School Monday evening by the Gettysburg Joint School Board.

Young, who played varsity football at Gettysburg College and pitched on the varsity baseball team there, lives at Aaronsburg, Pa., where for the last three years he has been serving as head football coach at the Penn's Valley Area High School, near Bellefonte, Pa.

He will succeed Ben Jones as head coach at Gettysburg High School. Jones submitted his resignation several months ago to take a post as head coach at Berwick High after two years here.

Highly recommended Superintendent H. Edgar Riegle told the board Monday evening: "Mr. Young comes very, very highly recommended. We have investigated him thoroughly as a man and as a coach." The election took place on a unanimous roll vote.

Young was selected from more than a score of applicants for Jones' position. His election came on the recommendation of the teacher committee. His base salary will be $4,400 under the local salary schedule. Last month the school board voted to pay $750 per year extra for the position of head football coach, instead of the $300 previously paid.

"Don" Young, who stands 6-1 and weighs 208 pounds, played both on the line and in the backfield during his gridiron career in Gettysburg College. He is qualified to coach baseball and wrestling as well as football, the board was told.

Young, who is married and the father of three children, went into the Marine Corps after graduation from college here. He served three years as a lieutenant and then was a teacher for a year at the Pennsylvania Industrial School at White Hill. From there he went to the state penitentiary at Rockview where he was education director. He is now in his third year at Penn's Valley School where he is head football coach and teaches health and physical education.

His state teaching certificate shows he is qualified to teach general science and social studies also. He did his practice teaching in Gettysburg High School in 1951.

Young also had a year of professional baseball with the Harrisburg farm club of the Cleveland Indians.

TRIBE FACES YANKS NEXT; LEAD THE PACK

NEW YORK (AP)—Joe Gordon, headmaster of the surprising Cleveland Indians, is getting a whiff of the upper air of first place in the American League but he still has a complaint.

"So far nobody has played poorly against us," Gordon said while preparing to lead his club against the New York Yankees tonight. "We hear of other teams making mistakes here and there but guys like Al Smith, Gene Woodling and Del Ennis kill us with star catches."

The Indians are riding atop the herd, a game and a half in front of the second-place Chicago White Sox. They dropped a doubleheader to the Pale Hose Sunday and so now they have to pull themselves together again.

Not Crushed Gordon was unhappy, but not crushed over the twin setback at the hands of (right now) the Tribe's No. 1 rival, Herb Score, who fanned 13 Yankees the only time he faced them this season, was one of the victims against the White Sox. Since licking the Yanks he has been wild.

"They drive him crazy," observed Gordon. "They're a go-go club and they go wild on the bases. Score keeps worrying about them on the bases and he can't get the ball over."

But pitchers change character so quickly, I don't think anyone really knows how to handle them. You just pray."

Gordon plans to send Score against the Yankees Wednesday.

SQUEEZE BUNT IN NINTH WINS FOR DODGERS

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Los Angeles Dodgers came from six runs back and edged the Philadelphia Phillies 11-10 Monday night, scoring the winning run on pinch-hitter Norm Larker's squeeze bunt in the ninth inning.

The victory kept the Dodgers in second place, a half game in back of the Milwaukee Braves. Larker's bunt scored Don Demeter, who had opened the inning with a double off the left field screen and had advanced to third on John Roseboro's sacrifice.

Ray Semproch had relieved Jim Hearn with one down and the bases loaded and threw just one pitch—and Larker laid it neatly down to the left of the pitcher's mound. No play was made at the plate.

Fowler Is Winner

Art Fowler, who pitched three innings in relief for Los Angeles allowing one run, was the winner. He is 3-2. Hearn, who went an inning and a third for the Phillies, took the loss, his first against no victories.

The game was only five minutes shy of tying the record for the longest game in NL history—3 hours, 43 minutes in 1944 between St. Louis and Chicago.

The score was tied 3-3 when the Phillies started their two-out rally in the fifth. Granny Hamner opened with a single and Ed Bouchee followed with a 350-foot homer into the left-center field seats. It was his third.

Wally Post and Harry Anderson then drew walks and the Phils loaded the bases when Charlie Neal booted Willie Jones' ground-er.

Boot Follows Boot

Don Zimmer followed Neal's error with another boot on Joe Koppe's grounder. Post scored on that play and Anderson and Jones came in when Carl Sawatski singled. Jim Owens drove in Koppe with another single.

Two walks and singles by Duke Snider, Gil Hodges and Roseboro produced three runs in the Los Angeles fourth. The Dodgers got three more in the fifth, one when Snider walked with the bases loaded. Demeter's sacrifice fly scored another, and Roseboro's second single brought in the third.

Tied In Sixth

The Dodgers tied it 9-9 in the sixth on a pinch double by Ron Fairly, singles by Neal and Demeter, a walk and a double error by Harry Anderson. Anderson misplayed Neal's hit for one error then threw erratically for another.

The Dodgers went ahead 10-9 in the seventh on a walk, a sacrifice and Jim Gilliam's single. The Phils tied it again in the eighth when Gene Freese hit a pinch homer over the left field screen. Freese has only three hits this season. All three are pinch homers.

Dr. W. C. Langsam Claims NCAA Influences Education

Dr. Walter C. Langsam, president of the University of Cincinnati and former president of Gettysburg College, made public the text of a 300-word letter which he has addressed to the National Collegiate Athletic Association in protest against a six-month probation inflicted April 29 upon the University of Cincinnati by the NCAA.

The probation order gave the university until October 26 to 28 of this year to submit a report that its student athletes, participating in the co-operative educational system and in part of the athletic grant-in-aid program, are not receiving funds exceeding limits permitted by the NCAA.

The co-operative system, which Cincinnati pioneered 55 years ago, is an arrangement by which its student participants attend classes approximately seven weeks and then work for approximately the same period.

Dr. Langsam directed his letter to H. J. Dorricott at Gunnison, Colo., president of the NCAA.

"It would be most unfortunate for American higher education if NCAA codes on financial aid should influence a student to choose one form of education over another," Dr. Langsam wrote. "Even now we are convinced we can demonstrate that our present aid policies do not give an overall advantage to co-operative college students over semester college students."

Pointing out that "I am deeply disturbed by the action of the council in placing the University of Cincinnati on probation," Dr. Langsam wrote that "I believe all the evidence indicates that the university was acting in good faith on the question of financial aid to student athletes in its co-operative colleges."

"To the public, and to me, probation connotes punishment for willful disregard of established

DODGERS WIN WITH SQUEEZE BUNT IN 9TH

By ED WILKS

Memo to baseball fans in Los Angeles: Your Dodgers are now back to normal — coming from behind, booting the other club ahead, then scrambling from behind again only to lose the lead before winning an 11-10 ball game on a squeeze bunt in the ninth.

That's exactly the way they beat Philadelphia in Los Angeles Monday night, staying within a half-game of Milwaukee's National League leading Braves with that 11-10 decision. It wasn't neat, but it was the Dodgers' third straight win by one run.

The Braves retained their lead the easy way, belting the Chicago Cubs 8-1 in an afternoon game. San Francisco's fourth-place Giants also breezed, walloping Pittsburgh 14-4 in the only other game scheduled in the NL.

Larker's Bunt Did It

Norm Larker laid down the bunt that brought in the winner for the Dodgers. Don Demeter opened the ninth with a double against losing reliever Jim Hearn (0-1). A couple of walks, sandwiching a sacrifice, loaded the bases. Larker then bunted perfectly on the first pitch by Ray Semproch, the Phils' fifth pitcher.

The Phils had run up a 3-0 lead in three innings against Dodger starter Stan Williams, but Los Angeles tied it in the fourth on an RBI single by Duke Snider, the first hit off Jim Owens, and a two-run single by John Roseboro. Then the Phils scored six in the fifth — two on Ed Bouchee's two-out homer and the rest earned on errors by Charlie Neal, who had handled 182 chances perfectly since last Sept. 10, and Don Zimmer.

The Dodgers then got three more in the fifth and a tying three in the sixth capped by Demeter's run-scoring single. A walk, sacrifice and Junior Gilliam's single gave the Dodgers the lead for the first time, 10-9, in the seventh against Dick Farrell, but winning reliever Art Fowler (3-2) gave up a tying home run by pinch hitter Gene Freese in the eighth. It was Freese's third hit of the season — all pinch homers.

The game took 3 hours, 38 minutes, just 5 minutes shy of the NL record for nine innings set by St. Louis and Chicago in 1954.

First Win For Buhl

The Giants, rolling up their highest run total of the season without benefit of a home run, were off and running with four unearned runs in the fourth against loser Bennie Daniels (0-1). They got six in the sixth, with Bob Schmidt socking his second two-run double of the game. Jack Sanford (5-2) was the winner, blanking the Bucs on four hits until the seventh, when Ted Kluszewski doubled and Bob Skinner homered. Klus's second double counted another in the eighth, and Dick Stuart hit a pinch homer in the ninth.

Bob Buhl gained his first victory for the Braves, but gave way to a pinch hitter in a five-run eighth. Buhl (1-1) had a three-hit shutout until the seventh, when Bobby Thomson doubled and pinch hitter Dale Long singled with two out. Johnny Logan and Ed Mathews hit solo homers off loser Mo Drabowsky (1-3).

PALMER WINS AT TWIN HILLS

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—A flock of professional golfers headed for Arkansas today, quite happy that one of their group was taking a brief vacation.

That player, Arnold Palmer of Ligonier, Pa., could well afford one even if he extended it for the rest of the year. He picked up $3,500 Monday for winning the $25,000 Oklahoma City Open with a 15-under-par score of 272 over the Twin Hills Country Club course.

Palmer said he would be unable to play in the $15,000 Hot Springs Open starting Thursday and would miss the Memphis and Louisville tournaments because of other business and the fact that he needed a rest from the tournament grind.

His next appearance will be in Washington, D.C., June 1, where he will try to qualify for the National Open championship at Winged Foot at Mamaroneck, N.Y., June 11-13.

Palmer's victory here boosted his bankroll to $15,400 for the year. He pocketed $45,000 as the top money winner last year.

Gettysburg High School got revenge for a previous defeat and also snapped a two-game losing streak by defeating Waynesboro 5-3 here Monday afternoon in a South Penn Baseball League game.

Don Coldsmith hurled the entire route for the Warriors and set the visiting Indians down with only three hits while fanning eight and walking three.

Waynesboro put together all of its hits for two runs in the top of the fourth. Ken Keller and Phil Haugh opened with singles and Bobby Hahn tripled the runners home. Coldsmith left Hahn stranded when he tossed out the next two batsmen, walked another, and then whiffed Charlie Carson for the third out.

Warriors Take Lead

The Warriors bounced back with three runs in the third. Bernie Lochbaum opened with a single and Gregy Maitland was safe on an error. A double by Hardy Nichols, an infield out, walk and a fielder's choice followed to produce the runs.

What proved to be the winning runs came in the last of the fifth. With one out, Nichols and Bob Furney walked. Gary Maitland then lashed a triple to score his teammates but was left stranded when the next two batters were retired via a grounder to third base and a strikeout.

Waynesboro got its final run in the last inning via two infield errors which sandwiched a ground out.

The Warriors, now 4-5, invade Hanover for a league game with the Nighthawks Thursday afternoon.

Escaped Prisoner Of War Surrenders After 14 Years

By ROBERT RANKIN
Cincinnati Enquirer Reporter

CINCINNATI (AP) — "I never was a Nazi and never wanted to go back to Germany under any conditions."

That was the quiet statement in flawless English by a balding one-time German army officer, Lt. Kurt Rossmeisl, sought by the FBI for 14 years.

Rossmeisl, 52 and an expert linguist, said he faded into anonymity in Chicago and stayed there after escaping in August 1945, from prisoner-of-war Camp Butler, N. C. He finally surrendered to the FBI here Sunday. The Immigration and Naturalization Service held a hearing Monday on his status.

Was Properly Admitted
The FBI turned over Rossmeisl to the Immigration and Naturalization Service, but he was released pending Monday's hearing. A spokesman for the service said Rossmeisl cannot be charged with illegal entry into the United States because he was properly admitted as a prisoner of war.

The spokesman also said the statute of limitations may have run out on prosecution for Rossmeisl's escape from the POW camp in 1945.

At a German-American club here Kurt Rossmeisl told of his wanderings.

Joined Army In 1941
He said he had just returned from a Dutch East Indies plantation when he entered the German army in 1941.

SAYS PENNA. CAN COMPETE ON TAX RATES

HARRISBURG (AP) — Pennsylvania's industrial planners were told today that Pennsylvania can compete taxwise with other states in attracting new industry.

The view was expressed by James J. Mahon Jr., chairman of the Greater Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce executive committee. He spoke at the third annual Industrial Development Clinic.

"Today Pennsylvania is in much better relative shape, industry tax-wise," Mahon said. "Its industry tax climate is approaching comparability with both contiguous and other competitive industrial states."

Mahon said the state's so-called "industry tax disadvantage" has disappeared in the past five years to the point where Pennsylvania can compete effectively with other states.

He said Pennsylvania's dependence on a broad-based sales tax as its major source of revenue was partly responsible for the improvement, plus the fact that the other states have taxed corporations heavily in order to derive revenue for increased education costs.

Some 300 industrial development planners are attending the two-day clinic. It is sponsored by the State Commerce Department which administers the Pennsylvania Industrial Development Authority's loan program.

He headed straight for Chicago, took the name Frank Ellis and took the first of a series of jobs, including punch press operator, bartender, waiter and elevator operator.

Ill health finally ended his shadow life.

"I'm suffering from arthritis," he said, "and was advised to move to Arizona or New Mexico when I got to Cincinnati. I was broke and decided to give up running."

HARRISBURG (AP) — A 59 percent decrease in the number of animal rabies cases during the first four months of the year was reported by the State Agriculture Department Monday.

The Bureau of Animal Industry reported rabid animals were found in Bradford, Greene, Lebanon and Wayne counties.

HONOLULU (AP) — Republican Gov. William F. Quinn of Hawaii Monday signed a freedom-of-information bill passed April 30 by the Democratic-controlled Legislature.

The bills were sent back to the Public Health and Welfare Committee Monday on the recommendation of Sen. Albert R. Pechan (R-Armstrong), one of the sponsors.

Pechan proposed that the measures be recommended for amendments "so that counties having their own health departments are not affected by these bills."

"While it is desirable to have uniform regulations applicable throughout the state, this uniformity does not necessarily have to apply to an area that already has smoothly functioning and satisfactory controls," Pechan said.

Asked To Collect For Pa.-Owned Car

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Justice Department has been asked to recover $2,803 for a state owned automobile destroyed while allegedly being used by a former deputy auditor general for personal purposes.

Andrew M. Bradley, secretary of property and supplies, claims Alfred T. Novello, a Philadelphia Republican, was on a pleasure trip in New York state last Memorial Day when the car was destroyed by fire.

Bradley said he asked Atty. Gen. Anne X. Alperin to "begin such actions as you deem appropriate" against Novello.

Novello quit his state post after a dispute with Aud. Gen. Charles C. Smith.

Blue Cross Patient
No. 1,000,000
MRS. DONALD M. BROUGHT AND BABY DAUGHTER

It's the "Something More" that makes BLUE CROSS Better!

When Mrs. Donald M. Brought of R.D. 1, McClure, was admitted to the Lewistown Hospital recently, she became BLUE CROSS PATIENT NO. 1,000,000—an important milestone in the 21-year history of Capital Hospital Service.

For Mrs. Brought and her husband, an employee of the International Postal Supply Company, Lewistown, their Blue Cross membership eased the burden of a large hospital bill... just as it has done for a million people in the central Pennsylvania area over the years.

This same protection may be available to you. If you aren't already a member inquire today and share in the security that only Blue Cross membership can give.

Asked To Collect For Pa.-Owned Car

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Justice Department has been asked to recover $2,803 for a state owned automobile destroyed while allegedly being used by a former deputy auditor general for personal purposes.

Andrew M. Bradley, secretary of property and supplies, claims Alfred T. Novello, a Philadelphia Republican, was on a pleasure trip in New York state last Memorial Day when the car was destroyed by fire.

Bradley said he asked Atty. Gen. Anne X. Alperin to "begin such actions as you deem appropriate" against Novello.

Novello quit his state post after a dispute with Aud. Gen. Charles C. Smith.

STATE C. OF C. LISTS WINNERS

HARRISBURG (AP) — First place winners in a statewide community development contest were announced today by the Pennsylvania Chamber of Commerce.

The winning areas qualifying for $1,500 cash prizes each were: New Kensington—Class A (25,000 population and over); Sunbury—Class B (10,000 to 25,000); Powelton Village (Philadelphia)—Class C (5,000 to 10,000); New Bethlehem—Class D (2,000 to 5,000); Millertown, Perry County—Class E (under 2,000).

The winners were announced by the chamber president G. Richard Fryling at the annual industrial development clinic here.

The awards were made on the basis of outstanding achievement in promoting industrial development and community rehabilitation projects. The winners were selected from a list of 126 areas which submitted scrapbooks and other data detailing their work.

Milk Regulation Changes Delayed

HARRISBURG (AP) — Proposals to bring county health department regulations concerning milk under the authority of the State Agriculture Department have been knocked off the Senate calendar.

The bills were sent back to the Public Health and Welfare Committee Monday on the recommendation of Sen. Albert R. Pechan (R-Armstrong), one of the sponsors.

Pechan proposed that the measures be recommended for amendments "so that counties having their own health departments are not affected by these bills."

"While it is desirable to have uniform regulations applicable throughout the state, this uniformity does not necessarily have to apply to an area that already has smoothly functioning and satisfactory controls," Pechan said.

OIL CENTENNIAL

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Senate has declared the year 1959 as oil centennial year in Pennsylvania and has urged all citizens to participate in centennial celebrations.

The resolution, approved Monday, noted that the oil industry was founded in Pennsylvania and that it marks its 100th birthday this year.

LONDON (AP) — The Soviet Union is sending four tennis players to the famed Wimbledon Championships starting June 22. They will be the first ever to represent the country in the tournament proper.

NAZIS READ SECRET YANK PAPERS IN '41

WASHINGTON (AP) — Nazi Germany read secret U.S. State Department messages in 1941. Diplomatic papers discuss a German claim that spies picked up the messages.

The State Department published a 1,011-page book of diplomatic papers concerning American relations with Europe in 1941.

The messages read by the Germans involved American attempts to keep French North Africa out of the Nazi camp. After the Nazis read the messages, Gen. Maxime Weygand lost his job as commander of North Africa for the Vichy government of unoccupied France. Robert D. Murphy, now undersecretary of state, had sent the messages to Sumner Welles, who was undersecretary then in Washington. At that time, Murphy was counselor of the U.S. Embassy in Vichy.

The State Department book does not specify how the Nazis were able to read Murphy's messages. Murphy told Washington of one explanation given by official informants. They told him the Germans had been kept accurately informed of all Weygand's conversations with us through a "reliable Washington source."

A second possibility was that the Nazis had broken the State Department code. But, Murphy told Washington, his informants said this was not so.

PART-NEGRO'S WHITE WIFE, KIDS LEAVE

NORWOOD, N.J. (AP) — "I think," said part-Negro ship officer Jean Brown, "it was a flight from fear."

It has been 16 days since his white wife and their three children disappeared from their comfortable suburban home. "There hasn't been a trace. Not a word," said Brown Monday.

"I think my wife fled because of a threat about our mixed marriage," Brown said. "It couldn't be anything else. We were a happy family."

A happy family but one that for several years has been harassed by phone calls at all hours of the day and night, "Sometimes as many as 60 a month," said Brown.

Leaves With Children
"My wife would answer the phone and some one would say something slanderous about 'that nigger husband of yours' and hang up. We tried but couldn't trace the calls."

Two weeks ago last Saturday, Mrs. Brown disappeared with their children, James, 14, Louise, 10, and Stella, 3. She went in the Brown's small car, leaving their new sedan behind.

Also gone was $4,800 from the family savings account. "We were saving the money to buy an inn in Mexico City."

Their last day together had been a happy one, Brown said. It was April 24. The next day was Mrs. Brown's 34th birthday. Brown and the children had baked her a cake.

"We'd lived here about 11 years. We'd gotten along fine. My wife was president of the women's society in the church and several months ago I was asked to be the town's scoutmaster.

"The calls began about two years ago. It was after I got shore duty and was home more often," said Brown, a chief engineer in the Maritime Service.
Brown is listed on his birth certificate as white. "But there is some Negro blood several generations back in my family. It has not shown up in any others in my family but it's pretty strong in me."
